Similarly, in Islam, angels like Jibril (Gabriel) are seen as divine messengers. Even outside of Abrahamic faiths, angelic beings appear in Zoroastrian, Jewish mystical, and New Age traditions, often embodying purity, guidance, and divine love.

Divination tools that incorporate angelic imagery originated in the 20th century as part of the New Age movement, emphasizing personal spiritual development and healing. These tools often feature angelic figures, symbols, and messages designed to foster a sense of divine connection.
