Understanding Hamlet's Negativity

The Nature of Hamlet's Pessimism

Hamlet's negativity is an intrinsic part of his character from the outset. His reflections are often tinged with despair, doubt, and a sense of futility. This pessimism is shaped by multiple factors:

- Exposure to Corruption and Decay: Hamlet perceives Denmark as a diseased state, both morally and politically. His famous line, "Something is rotten in the state of Denmark," highlights his view of widespread corruption.
- Personal Grief and Trauma: The death of his father and the subsequent hasty remarriage of his mother to Claudius deeply affects Hamlet, fueling his melancholy and distrust.
